Sir:

Kindly accept the following response to the Failure to Acceptably Respond to Notice of Non-Compliant Amendment mailed 04/28/2006

Introductory Comments

First of all, an applicant apologises for failure to acceptably respond to the Notice of Non-Compliant Amendment mailed on Feb.1, 2006. The Notice did not contain any detailed explanations why a complete listing of all claims is not present, and therefore an inexperienced applicant, thinking that his respond to PTO was lost, sent second copy intact. This time the Notice has indicated that CLAIMS 21-31 MISSING, and applicant understood the reason of the failure to properly respond. This is a full applicant's slip, because of a not thorough study of Examiner's detailed indications in a 12/19/2005 Office communication and applicant is very sorry for happening.

In this response an applicant desperately tried to correct all mistakes using a Dec.19, 2005 Office communication recommendations, but nevertheless, he is not completely sure everything is made correctly. Therefore, an applicant kindly asks the Examiner to correct the claiming part of application by himself.
